- b) The right at the time of award of the purchase order to increase or decrease the quantity of goods specified in the bidding document, without any changes in the price or other terms & conditions.
- c) The right to reject all or in part, the item supplied during the time of physical inspection/testing or found to be non-standard/non-specific/unreliable in terms of quality/not meeting specification.
- d) The right to direct negotiation, call quotations and receive the same via email from the manufacturers; authorized distributors; authorized dealers; and frequent supplier(s) of similar goods in Bhutan/India/China/Other countries to compare the rates with those offered by the vendors through this Bidding Document. If need be, to procure directly. The Purchaser also reserves the right to negotiate with the lowest evaluated bidder(s) or all of the bidders at any time prior to the award of the Purchase Order/Signing of the Supply Contract.
- 18.2. Should the selected Bidder(s) fail to supply the full order quantity within the given deadline, the purchaser reserves the right to cancel the quantities not supplied and place the order to the Second Lowest Evaluated Bidder. In such a case, the Purchaser shall recover as part of Liquidated Damages, the difference amount between purchase order rate and the actual rate paid to the second-lowest evaluated bidder for the quantities not supplied. The amounts shall be either adjusted from the Performance Security or bill/invoice amount of the supplied quantity.

19. Force majeure:

- 19.1. Force Majeure shall mean such unforeseeable occurrences beyond the control of the Purchaser and Bidder which occur after the date of issuance of Purchase Order or signing of Supply Contract and which were not reasonably foreseeable at the time of issuance of Purchase Order or signing of Supply Contract and which effects are not capable of being overcome without the unreasonable expense and/or loss of time to the Purchaser and the Bidder concerned, including, provided that the aforementioned conditions are met, but not limited to:
- Natural catastrophes, earthquakes
 - Strikes and blockages
 - War or war-like conditions, mobilizations, revolutions or riots, an act of Public enemy, sabotage, terrorism.
 - Restriction by or actions, omissions, or interventions from Public Authorities (including but not limited to changes in laws, regulations or import/export, security restrictions).
 - The Party who wishes to plead Force Majeure shall inform the other party of the First party's perception of the effects of such force majeure on the fulfillment of issued purchase order/signed Supply Contract. Should any event of force majeure cause an increase in the time required for the performance of any part of the purchase order/signed Supply Contract, an equivalent adjustment shall be made in the time required for performance.

However, if the force majeure situation continues for more than two months, the purchaser and bidder shall decide whether the contract should be terminated.

20. Termination:

20.1. In the event of any failure by the Bidder to perform any of its obligations under the issued purchase order or signed Supply Contract or upon unsatisfactory performance, the purchaser shall terminate the purchase order or signed Supply Contract by giving a prior written notice of Fifteen (15) days, without any obligation to the Bidder. However, the purchaser shall pay the actual due amount for the quantity supplied and accepted by the Purchaser to Bidder on termination of the issued purchase order or signed Supply Contract.

21. Indemnity:

21.1. The bidder(s) shall comply with all the laws in force in Bhutan and outside. The laws will include all national, provincial, municipal, or other laws that affect the performance of the issued purchase orders or signed Supply Contract and bind upon the Bidder(s). The Bidder(s) shall indemnify and hold harmless the Purchaser for and against any and all liabilities, damages, claims, fines, penalties, and expenses of whatever the nature arising or resulting from the violation of such laws by the Bidder(s).

22. Dispute Settlement:

22.1. If any dispute should arise in connection to the issued purchase order or signed Supply Contract, the Parties shall try to settle any such dispute through good faith and negotiations including escalation to senior Management where each party deems it appropriate. If negotiations fail, the matter shall be referred to the Court of Law.

23. Governing Law and Jurisdiction:

23.1. The terms and conditions in this Bidding Document or issued Purchase Order or signed Supply Contract shall be read and construed in accordance with the laws of the Kingdom of Bhutan and the District Court of Thimphu, Bhutan shall have jurisdiction over any disputes arising out of the Contract.
